(the “Company”) and ensuring the Supervisory Committee to work independently and effectively.

Article 2 The Supervisory Committee is the Company’s standing supervisory body, and shall fulfill its responsibilities and report to the general meeting according to the requirements of the Company Law, the Governance Standards, the Articles of Association and the Rules of Procedure.

Article 3 The Rules of Procedure is a legally binding document that regulates the relationship between the Supervisory Committee and the directors, president and other senior management staff of the Company.

CHAPTER II COMPOSITION OF THE SUPERVISORY COMMITTEE

Article 4 The Company shall establish a Supervisory Committee. The Supervisory Committee shall comprise three supervisors, including a Chairman who shall be subject to the affirmative votes of two-thirds or more of the members of the Supervisory Committee.

The Chairman of the Supervisory Committee shall take charge of the overall work of the Supervisory Committee, convene and preside over the meetings of the Supervisory Committee and report to the general meeting on behalf of the Supervisory Committee.

Where the Chairman of the Supervisory Committee is incapable of performing or fails to perform his/her duties, a supervisor elected by not less than half of the supervisors shall convene and preside over Supervisory Committee meetings.

Article 5 The Supervisory Committee shall consist of two shareholder representatives and one employee representative. Supervisors representing shareholders shall be elected or removed by the shareholders’ general meeting, while the supervisor representing employees shall be democratically elected or removed by the Company’s employees at the general meeting of employees’ representatives, employees’ assembly or by other form of democratic election.

Article 6 Supervisors shall be natural persons and shall not be required to hold any shares in the Company.

Article 7 The directors, president and other senior management staff may not concurrently serve as supervisors.

Article 8 A person who falls into any of the following circumstances shall not serve as a supervisor of the Company:

- (1) civil incompetence or limited civil competence;
- (2) no more than five years have lapsed since termination of the execution period for penalty on a crime of corruption, bribery, encroachment of property, embezzlement or disrupting socialist economic order, or no more than five years have lapsed since termination of the execution period for deprivation of political rights due to committing a crime;
- (3) no more than three years have lapsed since conclusion of liquidation owing to the bankruptcy of a company or enterprise where the person served as a director or factory manager or president and was personally liable for the bankruptcy;
- (4) no more than three years have lapsed since the date of cancellation of the business license and winding-up of a company or enterprise on account of illegal business operations where the person served as the legal representative and was personally liable;
- (5) a relatively large amount of personal debt is overdue but remains unpaid;
- (6) the person is under investigation by the judicial authorities after a claim has been brought for breaking the criminal law, pending conclusion of the case;
- (7) the person is not eligible for enterprise leadership under the laws and administrative regulations;
- (8) the person is not a natural person;
- (9) no more than five years have lapsed since the person was found guilty of violating relevant securities regulations and involved in fraud or dishonesty as adjudged by relevant regulatory authorities;

- (11) no more than two years have lapsed since the Shanghai Stock Exchange or the Shenzhen Stock Exchange has declared the person to be inappropriate; and
- (12) other circumstances specified by laws, administrative regulations or department rules.

For any election and appointment of a supervisor in contravention of the provisions prescribed by this Article, such election or appointment shall be void and null. Where a supervisor falls into any of the aforesaid circumstances in his/her term of office, the supervisor shall be removed from office.

Article 9 Each supervisor shall serve for a term of three years. Supervisors who are Shareholders shall be elected or replaced by the shareholders' general meeting and supervisors who are employees shall be democratically elected or replaced by the Company's employees. The term is renewable upon re-election and re-appointment.

Article 10 The tenure of supervisors shall commence from the date on which the resolution of the shareholders' general meeting or the general meeting of employees' representatives is passed and end on the date when the new Supervisory Committee is elected by the shareholders' general meeting or the general meeting of employees' representatives upon expiration of the term of the current Supervisory Committee.

Article 11 The supervisors shall abide by laws, administrative rules and the Articles of Association. They shall perform the obligations faithfully and diligently and discharge the supervisory duties in good faith. They shall not abuse their authority of office to obtain bribes or other illegal income and not misappropriate the property of the Company.

Article 12 Supervisors have the right to know the operation of the Company and to undertake the confidential duties accordingly. Except required by the laws or agreed by the general meeting, supervisors may not disclose confidential information of the Company.

Article 13 A supervisor who violates any requirements of any laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association during the course of performing his/her duties shall be liable for indemnification to any loss so caused to the Company.

Article 14 The Company shall ensure the supervisors' right to know and shall provide necessary assistance to supervisors for their performance of duties. No one shall interfere with or obstruct supervisors' work.

Article 15 A supervisor may resign before the expiry of his/her tenure. The provisions regarding resignation of directors stipulated in Chapter 6 of the Articles of Association shall be applicable to supervisors. A supervisor to resign shall submit to the Supervisory Committee a written report in relation to his/her resignation. The Supervisory Committee shall disclose the relevant information within two days.

Article 16 Supervisors shall ensure the truthfulness, accuracy and completeness of the information disclosed by the Company.

Article 17 Supervisors may attend meetings of the board of directors as non-voting participants, and make enquiry or suggestion regarding matters to be resolved thereat.

Article 18 Supervisors shall not use their relationship to prejudice the Company's interests, and shall be liable for indemnification to any loss so caused to the Company.

Article 19 In the event that the term of a supervisor falls upon maturity whereas the new member of the Supervisory Committee is not re-elected in time or the resignation of any supervisor results in the number of members of the Supervisory Committee falling below the quorum, the existing supervisor shall continue to perform his/her duties in accordance with the requirements of laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association until the re-elected supervisor assumes office.

Other than the circumstances referred to in the preceding paragraph, the resignation of a supervisor shall become effective upon submission of his/her resignation report to the Supervisory Committee.

Article 20 Upon a supervisor's resignation becoming effective or at the expiry of his/her term of office, the supervisor shall complete all handover procedures with the Supervisory Committee, and his/her fiduciary obligations to the Company and the shareholders shall not necessarily cease after the termination of tenure and shall remain effective within one year after the termination of tenure. The duty of confidentiality in respect of trade secrets of the Company survives the termination of his/her term of office until such trade secrets become public known.

Article 21 A supervisor who causes the Company to sustain a loss due to his/her unauthorized departure from office prior to the end of his/her term shall be liable for indemnification.

CHAPTER III THE POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE SUPERVISORY COMMITTEE

Article 22 The Supervisory Committee shall be accountable to the general meeting, and shall supervise the Company's financial affairs and the Company's directors, president or other senior management performing their duties in a legitimate manner and in compliance with the relevant laws in order to safeguard legitimate interests of the Company and shareholders.
